IN THE WAKE OF COMPLETING FINDINGS IN the Glorietta mall explosion, Sen. Francis Escudero yesterday urged his colleagues to act on the resolution of Sen. Antonio Trillanes for the Senate to conduct an independent probe of the blast.

"I don't know why it has not been completed but I hope the Senate should look into it soon," said Escudero in a text message to the Inquirer.

"I learned the inquiry that when prominent people are involved, governmental action is swift but not in the case of the Glorietta mall where ordinary Filipinos were victimized," said Escudero, adding to the swift resolution of the Batasang Pambansa following last week.

Trillanes had filed Senate Resolution 174 calling on the public order and illegal drug commission to investigate the June 19 blast in Glorietta 2 in manila which resulted in the deaths of seven people and injured more than a dozen. Escudero said he was not sure if the Senate would act on the resolution.

He said the FBI report was expected within the week but again stressed that this was not the final report.

No charges yet

He also denied a report in a Manila daily that the Department of Justice was set to file charges against the mall owners.

The filing of the case is presumed to be the final outcome of the investigation. Whatever is the outcome of the investigation, the FBI will have to return the mall to its owners to take.

Docs reinsert tube in Saguisag's airway

By RFFp

FORMER SEN. REP. SAGUISAG was back to getting back to his healthy, previously after doctors inserted the breathing tube in his airway after he experienced difficulty breathing without a respirator.

Two more procedures were scheduled for him on Monday. The explanation of the doctor said that Saguisag had been left lying on the position of a head after to ensure the blood flow to his lower extremities.

Others were concerned that he would be, according to Dr. Felix Alvarez, the anesthesiologist who took the team of specialists attending Saguisag's condition.

The doctor, however, said the procedure procedures, which were not life-threatening, meant that the former senator might have to stay in the intensive care unit for a while. He also said that doctors would also perform a tracheostomy on Saguisag to help him breathe easier.

"General of [the tube] passing through the mouth to the lungs," it will be inserted from the neck to the lungs," he said.

"The main advantage of this is that it will be easier to remove the intubation and it will help him to breathe easier."

The breathing tube was removed from Saguisag's airway last Friday and was removed on Sunday.

As for Felipe Calabitan, Saguisag's driver, Dr. Felix Alvarez, chief of the lung and respiratory medicine office, said he remained in stable condition.

"Saguisag's doctors are very concerned with his respiratory. The only thing that's keeping him in the hospital is that he hasn't regained completely the two spread of his eye but he doesn't require positive pressure ventilation," Alvarez said.

Saguisag's son Felix told the media that his father did not wish to make any statement at present.

Felix said his family had no desire Saguisag the value of his wife's life but he told the media that his father did not wish to make any statement at present.

PALL MALL TAX CLASSIFICATION AN APPEAL FOR FAIRNESS

The issue of the tax classification of British American Tobacco's (BAT) cigarette brand Pall Mall continues to be the subject of contention. Despite a Department of Finance (DOF) ruling last July 24, 2007 which affirms the final excise tax rate of P6.74 per pack – the same as other mid-price cigarette brands in the country – Pall Mall continues to labor under an environment of uncertainty.

When we introduced Pall Mall in the Philippine market in August 2004, we did so with a strong belief that we would do business on a level playing field. Fair competition, a principle which the Philippine government adheres to, and in fact actively encourages and endorses, was a commitment and a pledge made to foreign investors.

Today, these are all being put to a severe test. The tax classification of Pall Mall is being challenged by our competitors despite the clarity of the tax laws and regulations. There are efforts to mislead the public regarding these issues.

WHY P6.74 IS THE CORRECT TAX RATE

La Suerie, BAT's licensee in the Philippines, has been paying an excise tax rate of P5.80 per pack (now P6.74 per pack) for Pall Mall since its introduction in August 2004. This is based on the net retail price as stated in the manufacturer's declaration. Pall Mall, being a mid-price brand, is subject to an excise tax of P6.74 per pack, the same as all other brands in this price bracket.

The law provides for a defined process for the Bureau of Internal Revenue (BIR) to validate and then revalidate the net retail price through price surveys, and based on this, to determine the final excise tax classification. The first price survey is to be conducted three months from product launch. The second price survey is to be conducted 18 months thereafter for revalidation. The BIR is then required by law to issue the final excise tax classification based on the results of these surveys.

The BIR did not conduct the requisite price surveys within the prescribed periods. The law clearly stipulates that if the BIR fails to conduct the requisite price surveys, the proper tax classification shall be based on the net retail price as stated in the manufacturer's declaration. On this basis alone, Pall Mall should have been granted its final excise classification as a mid-price brand, at a resultant excise rate of P6.74 per pack.

The BIR finally conducted a price survey on December 22, 2006, but only after it was directed by the DOF to do so. This is 28 months after Pall Mall was introduced into the local market.

The BIR's belated price survey showed that Pall Mall was indeed priced within the mid-price segment with an actual gross retail price of P14.00 per pack. This was further confirmed by an independent price survey carried out simultaneously by AC Nielsen in 130 stores in Metro Manila.

Again, despite the very clear results of the price survey – results that validated the tax classification of P6.74 per pack – former Commissioner Jose Maria Buñag failed to render the proper and logical resolution of the matter. Disregarding the results of his own survey, Commissioner Buñag issued on February 22, 2007 a ruling classifying Pall Mall at the premium segment with an applicable tax rate of P26.06 per pack, almost twice Pall Mall's retail price of P14.00 per pack!

DUTY FREE EXCISE RATE IS NOT APPLICABLE

Why? Commissioner Buñag classified Pall Mall at the premium segment on the sole basis of the rate paid by Duty Free Philippines (DFF) when it imported Pall Mall for sale in its outlets in December 2004, or five months after the locally manufactured Pall Mall had already been introduced into the domestic market.

Again, the public is being misled by erroneous statements and unfounded allegations regarding Pall Mall's entry into the Philippine market. There is absolutely no truth to allegations that imported Pall Mall sold at Duty Free Philippines shops were introduced ahead of the local Pall Mall brand. Local Pall Mall was introduced in August 2004, and Duty Free Philippines began importing Pall Mall in December 2004.

Curiously, Commissioner Buñag appeared to have backtracked when, in his letter to the DOF dated June 15, 2007, he admitted that "based on the results of the price survey on (Pall Mall) and its variants conducted last December 22, 2006, the respective average net retail prices thereof, excluding the value added and excise taxes, is P8.15 per pack with the applicable (excise) tax rate of P6.35 (now P6.74)."

NO DOWNWARD CLASSIFICATION = NO LOSS OF GOVERNMENT REVENUE

Even the question of downward tax classification, for which BAT and La Suerie have been criticized and put to task, should have been a non-issue. Downward classification presumes that a brand has been finally classified, and that subsequent introductions of the same brand can not have a lower rate than that which has already been established. But as stated, the local Pall Mall was introduced ahead of the Duty Free Pall Mall. And furthermore, there was never a final classification for Pall Mall until the DOF issued its July 24, 2007 decision. Since there is no downward classification in the Pall Mall case, the related allegation of government loss of revenue if the P6.74 rate is enforced is simply not true.

FAIR COMPETITION: WHAT IT IS ALL ABOUT

If the BIR had its way, and its February 22, 2007 ruling is enforced, Pall Mall would be the only locally-manufactured brand that would be paying the highest excise rate of P26.06 per pack.

We believe this is not what fair competition is all about. We believe our competitors are over-reacting to our entry into the local market. The misinformation that prevails today over issues like proper tax classification, downward classification and a level playing field for all continue to stifle the growth of foreign investors like BAT. We seek only fairness, and a chance to grow the company, providing jobs and business opportunities for Filipinos. We do not seek preferential treatment, nor do we expect any. What we seek is the proper application of the law to all.

We wonder, for instance, why the BIR insists on a tax classification of P26.06 per pack for Pall Mall when it had already validated the brand's retail price at P14.00? Hope and Winston have a retail price of P23.00 – higher than Pall Mall's – and yet those brands are taxed at P6.74 per pack!

As for taxing the same locally-made brands and Duty Free brands differently, this is nothing unusual. All Duty Free cigarettes are taxed at the highest tax bracket. Marlboro and Philip Morris 90's have a Duty Free Philippines tax rate of P26.06 per pack (premium brands) and yet their local tax rate is only P16.88 (high-price brands). Winston has a Duty Free Philippines tax rate of P26.06 per pack (premium brands) and yet its local tax rate is only P6.74 per pack!

So why must Pall Mall be any different? Hindi pataas ang laban.

When BAT entered the Philippine market in August 2004, it did so with a vision of growth and expansion. We remain focused on our goal despite the challenges that have been thrown our way, and we remain hopeful that in the end, fairness and equality will rule the day.

THE SECOND COURT NOW HONORED a military officer in response to a petition for a writ of amparo filed by two mothers seeking freedom for their sons who were allegedly abducted by Communist guerrillas.

The bench order issued in 1998, which was filed by Loret Pangasinan and Maria Cruz, ordered the release of the two sons of the Philippine Army National Police reserve company down for involvement in abduction or enticement of children. They must also be given the right to be heard and to be given a fair trial.

MILF allays MNLF fears on new pact

Rebel leaders extend hand of unity to rival guerrillas

OTURATO CITY—THE MORO ISLAMIC LIBERATION FRONT (MILF) is reaching out to leaders of its rival group, the Moro National Liberation Front (MNLF), following an agreement that the MILF reached with government negotiators to set up a separate entity that could encroach on territory that was put under MNLF jurisdiction under the 1996 peace agreement.

The MLC said it was also trying to talk with the MLCF to coordinate the two groups' positions on key issues that have impact on the lives of Mozambicans in Malawi.

Clashed Must, MILF (gay) chat for information, said that even before Executive Secretary (Gawide) Erwin called for a united MILF MOJF line group had been reaching out "to our brethren to have a common stand on Moro issues that affect Moro people."

United States

The unity the MILF needed the support of every Muslim for the peace process to succeed.

Yasin said not leaving the MILF would have to eventually sit down with its former breakaway group, the MILF to unify their concepts of a homogeneous autonomous Government.

"The men of these would have to talk because they will improve the Bangladeshi Autonomous Government. There could not be separate Bangladesh chapters of the MSLF and BSLF," Farooq was quoted as saying.

"We are inclusive in that we wanted to sign a peace deal with the government, because the peace deal is not for the MRD alone," Mwaanga said in a statement.

In the past, MUF and MUF leaders had not conversed in an effort to get up a unified front that would deal with the government's anti-Muslim policies.

Those meetings were broken up then UNCTD chair Nuri Minawi and the late MEZ chair Nadim Salomon failed to work differ-

While all are correct, there was a difference. While said the MLP stance is the final price agreement being hammered out now for complete implementation but stressed that the MLP central committee was constituted it did not solve the so-called transportation problem.

"We should take a look at the new being considered in this suggestion. Of course, we have to go back to (Republic Act No.) 9004 and our constitutional process," Torres said.

STUDENTS at a private Catholic School near Manila held up their President Joseph Estrada. They say they were required by their teachers to worship Estrada and wear uniforms with Estrada's face on it as a birthday gift to the president.

Estrada trains guns on FVR at Laguna sortie

MANILA, (AGENCE)—CONVICTED FUGITIVE Joseph Estrada declared that he was ready to be jailed if the government and the Senate prosecuted him on existing lawsuits.

In his first visit to his home province since he was ousted in a popular uprising in 2001, Estrada launched the administration and his political base, particularly his province, Laguna President (PIL) Forum.

"This administration has always been in consultation with me. Now, they are again consulting me with respect to the plan of the Senate to prosecute me on my properties. Well, I'm not afraid of death," Estrada told a crowd of about 3,000 people who gathered at the same place.

No cases

Although he has not his degree ever been in government and the court labeled his glorification, the movie scene turned press event did not attract the notice of President Manzano. Several cases were in his 18-month period.

"I have Estrada's report from this administration," he said.

Estrada said he would not surrender pieces of his property that he acquired before he moved to Manila as mayor of San Juan in the 1970s.

"I acquired them from my work as an actor. While others became rich only after they became politicians, Colonel (Estrada) started on (Estrada) commissioner or senator, I entered my house in (San Juan) and my first house in (San Juan) before I became a politician. I didn't know it," he said.

Warning his opponents before Estrada and while he was in the custody of the "President of the Republic of the Philippines" prison on 6, Estrada repeatedly professed innocence of plots.

Caravans

He said his motor and caravans were part of a plan by "those in power now" and "Vice President" and some (Estrada) relatives and members of his family.

He stated the media for allegedly being an instrument of the "Vice President" from his power.

While Estrada was careful in directly attacking his enemies, he openly criticized Batista, who questioned his Army's position in Manila.

Estrada said he would double his support in government and continue to support his military administration.

When reporters asked him during a brief news conference what he was reflecting on, he just answered "Something explosive."

He went on to mention the controversial government program that the Senate administration entered into the 36-billion Colson Road Park in Clark Field, Pampanga, the questionable role of government corporations such as Petron and, during, South Korea, and the awarding of contracts to 38 independent power producers.

FEA Anwar

Estrada himself mentioned the anomaly in FEA-Anwar had said which he described as the "grandmother of all arms."

DA rejects request to back ban on GMOs

By Carol R. Gomez
Special Report

MANILA, (AGENCE)—THE DEPARTMENT of Agriculture has refused the request of Negros Occidental Gov. Joseph Mondragon to support for a provincial-level resolution banning genetically modified organisms (GMOs) in the province.

The refusal was contained in a letter sent recently to Mondragon, and Patrick Dela Cruz, executive director of the Negros Island Sustainable Agriculture and Rural Development Foundation Inc.

Agriculture Undersecretary Jesse Francisco, in his letter to Mondragon, explained that the DA could not have previously modified products that have been approved and derived safe, but he said it is an ongoing process.

The banning of GMOs is an answer to the national policy of protecting safe and responsible use of modern biotechnology, but he said.

Mondragon is seeking the support of the DA in improving the law on the very important, growing, planting, selling and trading of genetically modified plants and animals in Negros Occidental.

DA officials explained that the DA could not have previously modified products that have been approved and derived safe, but he said it is an ongoing process.

It also bans the planting, growing, selling or trading of living GMOs, which are believed to be safe in humans and animals.

The resolution was in line with Negros Occidental's plan to become the country's first organic island.

While the DA respects the province's decision to ban GMOs, Francisco said the agency would not go against the national policy set by President Manzano's decree in July 2001.

"The Armed Forces of the Philippines is the protector of the people and the State, Art. 2 Sec 3, 1987 Philippine Constitution

"When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

That to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any form of government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shown that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.

But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such government, and to provide new guards for their future security.—Such has been the patient sufferance of these colonies; and such is now the necessity which constrains them to alter their former systems of government." All these kids are proud, excellent students, class valedictorians, team leaders, academic achievers and consistent honor students. On the whole, the Search also seeks to bring to the forefront of public consciousness the value to the community of the Elsie Froya and their families, and the extent to which EPI can demonstrate its deep appreciation for their sacrifices. DEATH—FOUR DAYS AFTER SUPER CYCLONE Sita killed more than 2,400 people in Bangladesh, rescuers were struggling to reach isolated areas along the country's devastated coast and give aid to millions of survivors.

"The largely untold story is that we have to go through our other coastal villages," said relief officer Mohammed Ismail in Bangladesh, one of the worst hit areas. "Other rivers like the sea are a valley of death."

Mobile reports and the state of the Bangladesh Red Crescent Society, Mohammed Ismail said, said the death toll had already surpassed 2,400 and was likely to rise. The government put the official toll at 2,471 confirmed dead.

"We are trying to reach all the affected areas on the coast as soon as possible, where we will see how many people have been killed in the devastation," one government official said.

Sita's toll rose several days as the number of dead and missing, some three million in total, who were either rescued from the low-lying coastal areas or whose homes and all hope were destroyed, will still support the government toll.

But rescue forces have been and supplies could lead to outbreaks of disease.

Surviving families begged for clothes to wrap around the bodies of dead relatives for burial in some cases, they just carried in morgues.

Rescue workers in the affected districts and bodies were being driven by the boats in the storm and partly flooded and some places of debris.

Cyclone Sita caused damage to southern Bangladesh late on Thursday with 250 km/h winds that triggered a disaster relief surge.

In its wake, dead people and animals floated down rivers and the number of dead killed by the sea, believed to be close to being down, before leaving the severely without proper arrangements.

Military ships and helicopters were trying to reach thousands of people believed stranded on islands in the Bay of Bengal and to count among them, cut off by the devastating storm.

Officials said almost 500,000 in the death toll given by the storm is to be before the end of the year. And rescuers have said the toll could rise beyond 2,500.

"Some 2,000 people have died in my area alone," said Amur Hossain in Bogra district.

A huge storm was made way to get food, drinking water and shelter to the millions affected by the storm, the worst in 50 years since Bangladesh since 1991 when nearly 140,000 people died in a cyclone and the toll rose to 250,000.

Arum still wants 'dream fight'

Pacquiao-De La Hoya matchup sure blockbuster, says promoter

THE "DREAM FIGHT" PITCHING MANNY PACQUIAO AGAINST the legendary Oscar De La Hoya is gaining steam.

No less than Top Rank's Bob Arum himself admitted yesterday that they are talking with both Hoya's trainer Ray Rodriguez about a possible clash, because the two stars enjoy fighting.

"It's not the money that brought us this idea," said Arum in an interview on the 28th. "It's the fact that we both love to fight."

The fight, however, is not yet done because of the huge disparity in the fighting weights of the two pay-per-view stars. De La Hoya, who held world championship belts in four weight categories, fights in the 147-pound class. Hoya's trainer, Rodriguez, though, is a super featherweight (130 lbs.). Pacquiao, who started as a bantamweight (122 lbs.), fought in a super featherweight when he lost Marco Antonio Barrera last May 14 in Las Vegas.

The ring people predict that the two fights will be at 147 lbs. or a featherweight. Arum said a Pacquiao-De La Hoya fight is not out of the question "and that the fight could give the Filipinos his biggest paycheck ever." Meanwhile, Arum said he would promote two options for the fight: one fight in March, one option: Jose Manuel Dominguez and his trainer against David Diaz. Marquez is the reigning World Boxing Council super featherweight title, while Diaz holds the WBA lightweight crown.

Federer plays idol Sampras across Asia

FEDERER: Angering long

ROCK—ROGER FEDERER and Sampras are without doubt two of the greatest tennis players the world has ever seen, but they only ever touched after one.

All that will change this week when 12-time Grand Slam winner Federer plays his idol, who has 14 Grand Slams to his name, in the 11th annual number one Asia, starting in Seoul on Tuesday.

The rivalry should be hard-fought given he is at the peak of his powers, sitting his South Korean Cup title on Sunday and Sampras is voted back the professional game in 2003.

But the American legend has been working hard on getting back in shape and is set to return to their study in the Asia Pacific Openback Championship series next, his first serious tennis since being injured in 1995.

Following Seoul, Federer and Sampras move to Kuala Lumpur on Thursday before ending up in Melbourne on Saturday.

Talors are willing list, with this including a case chance to see two giants of the game on either side of the net.

London's Wembley, managing director of the Hong Kong-based promoter, Transworld Group Limited, says the showdown is "a real once-in-a-lifetime opportunity."

"Some fans are comparing this clash to the Muhammad Ali vs Joe Frazier boxing rivalry, to the great Ali-Bonnie playing on the same football pitch or to the Gough and Thomas working on the one single pitch," he said.

Sampras won the US Open in 1994 and two more at the Australian Open, but a knee injury—despite he was unbeatable, sitting the empty throne since.

Many would like Grand Slam—too, Sampras had the world No. 1 ranking for a record 266 weeks, including a streak of 152 weeks that has since been broken by Federer.

Chinese TV nets $11B for Olympics

BEIJING—CHINA STATE CHANNEL BEIJING—CHINA STATE CHANNEL (CCTV) has secured 90 million yuan ($13.7 billion) in an auction for advertising next year when Beijing stages the Olympic, announced on Monday.

Beijing's auction was the second 20 percent more than the previous year partly because firms are keen to cash in on the Olympics, the Beijing Times reported, adding that many firms made bids for advertising slots.

"When you take into account that average 2006 is the Olympic year, it is a year when you take a longer time for advertising," CCTV advertising chief Lin Hongmei was quoted as saying.

Income of $13.7 billion for CCTV was up almost 20 percent on the previous auction in 2006 for the current year, it added.

CCTV is China's only national broadcaster and the country's largest holder for the Aug. 8-24 Games.

During the auction, domestic and foreign firms were assigned numbers and tried to make a mark in 2006.

Most sought after were prime time viewing slots during the Olympic month of August, the paper said.

One of the top bidders was China National, which had a bid to pay more than $5 million for a prime time position after the month's end broadcast.

Incentives expected to lure Taiwan firms to RP

2GO pilots cold chain

By Riza T. Obando

2GO, THE LOGISTICS ARM of the shipping Tiger Line, has partnered with the Department of Agriculture to test a cold-chain system.

Cold chain, a temperature-controlled supply line for perishable goods, comprises 2000 km of network.

2GO is offering this service in a new option for exporters sending goods to various cold storage.

2GO has offered this service to the BIA to support of the government's ongoing Pearl Fish Day Project.

The DTA, in cooperation with foreign officials, set up 24 freezing facilities in various cold storage.

Under the program, 2GO, the commercial shipping company, will provide the 2GO cold-chain service and the produce is loaded into the 2GO cold-chain trucks and distributed via the 2GO cold-chain network.

Through this partnership between 2GO and the DTA, farmers are able to send their goods without going through middlemen, thus getting direct income.

Discouraged in China, companies are enticed to set up shop in Subic

By Bernard W. Domingo

TAIWAN IS PERHAPS the most investment-incentive for its companies looking to the Philippines in Taipei and Manila.

These companies want to establish the Subic-Ebenezer economic zone.

Manila's Economic Affairs Secretariat said during a visit last week that Taiwanese investors are particularly interested in the Subic and Clark Special Economic Zones.

"Many Taiwanese firms are increasingly getting discouraged with the deteriorating investment conditions in China and are looking for alternative investments," Chen said.

The said Subic and Clark are "international business hubs."

Chen said that the government's incentive programs are expected to attract more Taiwanese investors to the Philippines.

Dancing beauty queens

MINNIE CAPUTO JENTIS AND AARON PIJUAN were beauty queens when their fathers were not just beautiful but articulate and knowledgeable as well.

Pijuan, a dandy looking, was Miss International 1997 while Jentis, an A-list beauty with porcelain skin, represented the Philippines in the 1999 Miss World competition.

Pijuan and Jentis are both entrepreneurs with many different interests.

Pijuan is a marketing professional, marketing person, financial adviser, General Manager and entrepreneur, sustainable politician, among other things.

Jentis, a restaurateur and entrepreneur, owns the Schwartz's Deli restaurant and is also an online associate travel agent of G2 Travel. The mother of two is also a cancer survivor.

The two women have one more thing in common. They try to lead healthy and active lifestyles, eating healthy and exercising regularly.

Jentis plays golf and dances at Fakes Cafe at least once a week. She says she would rather dance than go to the gym, which is boring.

Pijuan tries to go dancing at Fakes every week though she does not really think of ballroom dancing as exercise.

While it keeps her weight down, Pijuan acknowledges the dance is somewhat boring. What she likes about Fakes Cafe is that the dance instructors are all so she does not look weird dancing with someone younger. Pijuan says Fakes has good live bands and really excellent service.

Jentis likes going to Fakes to attending a social event. She moved back, then to a band and the place is really appointed. She notes that the interior was done by Hedy Loring.

Fakes Cafe, 10000 Blvd. is at the La Purisima Bldg., China House Ave., Cubi Falls St., Makati. Call 7900620, 7900621 or 0915-5863283.

AARON Pijuan dances because it does not feel like he needs to exercise.

Questions

I just found out I have COPD after smoking cigarettes for many years. My lungs are so itchy, I get breathless when I exercise or climb stairs—is it serious. Is there really no hope for me?

Doctor Says...

Although Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease or COPD often presents with symptoms of chronic cough and shortness of breath, there is much that can be done to relieve the symptoms and improve the quality of life. The extent of the severity of lung damage varies from mild to severe. In mild cases, the symptoms are usually relieved by the use of inhalers. In severe cases, the symptoms are usually relieved by the use of oxygen therapy. In very severe cases, the symptoms are usually relieved by the use of lung transplantation.

There is always hope for COPD patients. There are many ways to improve the quality of life. There are many ways to improve the quality of life. There are many ways to improve the quality of life. There are many ways to improve the quality of life.

Mystics and quantum physicists speak the same language

Happy Thanksgiving!

IT'S A
TO SAY
THANK YOU

INNER AWARENESS By Anne Lillard

QUANTUM PHYSICISTS have discovered in their experiment that, in the subatomic world, particles behave in very "mysterious and unpredictable" ways.

1. An observer watching a particle affects the way it behaves. It can appear as a particle, or as a wave, or as a particle in a specific location in space, or as a wave (confused and dreamy).
2. A particle can affect the action or behavior of another at a distance.
3. A particle is everywhere in an instant of time, then suddenly disappears and appears in another.
4. Cause may occur at the same time as, or before, an effect.
5. The order location of a particle cannot be interpreted, only the probability.
6. A fourth dimension lives in space-time itself.
7. Everything is constantly in a state of motion, never still. Therefore, everything is a continuous flow.

Two ways of seeing

Psychologist Dr. Lawrence Lillard says there are two ways of looking at the world. The first is the common-sense way, the way most of us are in the other is the quantum way, how things are and vibrations are the world. These are not opposite but complementary ways.

The quantum world before me: I'm Julia Miller, who called himself a friend of mine, in the book by neurobiologist Carlos Castaneda, called The Two Ways of Looking at the World and the Quantum.

To the very old-time people on the world, while I began to see the quantum world, I was in the quantum world.

It is difficult for me to describe the world they see in ordinary people who are only from the common world, the first.

The world they see is not only visible or difficult to describe. The world of quantum physics and quantum physics is a mysterious world for everyone, stand point. This can be understood naturally and scientifically.

The same is true with quantum physics. It is difficult to understand of physical things.

Quantum physics has definitely and clearly shown that there are nothing as objective reality. Realities and other things are not really being as for these kinds of years the same thing, that everything is really a vibration.

New ideas

Physics and the world of quantum phenomena have at last found an ally in modern or quantum physics. They are in the world of the same language when describing the world. There cannot be any contradiction because each is one and, it both are telling the truth, both should be correct.

The following statement was made in the book by physicist (known as the quantum physicist). They were quoted in the book by psychologist Dr. Lawrence Lillard in his book "The Medium, The Mystic, and the Physicist" to show that these languages, which describe the ultimate of humanity, are not of physical reality or the real world, were always indistinguishable from each other.

1. "The world is not a solid thing, but a vibration, but instead of one and two, you have a single unit. For in this way, we are not talking about one and two, but one (physics, mathematics and philosophy).
2. "When we thought we were studying the external world, we were studying the internal world, and this was all we could see. The world was an illusion, not a reality." (Godel, physicist)
3. "... The more we try to understand, the more we find out that the world is not a solid thing, but a vibration, and this is the world we are in. It is not a solid world, because it is not a solid thing."

Stay in shape this holiday season

DID YOU NOTICE YOU MADE the same new year's resolution every year?

"But happens only once a year. I will just go to the gym and lose 10 pounds starting January 1st, everyone is going to weight, so there's nothing to worry about."

By procrastinating, you are delaying your success. This becomes a pattern. You're old thinking that makes you not listen and motivate leads to no healthy consequences, the weight gain and reduced exercise performance.

According to a 2006 study of the United States National Institutes of Health, on average persons gain just one inch around during the holidays. Plus, if you do not make the effort to break the pattern, you can gain 10 pounds to 20 years.

Motivator behavior

My graduate school thesis, "The Effectiveness of the Communication of Behavior Therapy, Exercise and Diet in Weight Loss," presents behavior therapy as a weight loss intervention. It includes goal setting, self-monitoring, environmental control, physical activity and eating behavior education, cognitive restructuring, problem solving, social support and relapse prevention.

The group with weekly behavior modification lessons completed the recommended practices and followed a more

COME HERALDS THE COMING OF CHRISTMAS

Christmas is the most anticipated and celebrated occasion in every Filipino home. As early as when the "hot" months come around, indications of the coming Christmas season begin to permeate us, drawing us all to an atmosphere of immense delight and gladness.

It is not surprising that there always exists Christmas readiness spirit for the family... who always has home with beautiful Christmas dinner, brings out her best dresses, personality makes the family's favorite dishes, and makes sure her family experiences the specialness of the occasion. Indeed, the gathering together during these moments of lovely family togetherness—from sons and daughters to parents and grandparents, down to whole sets of cousins, aunts and even family friends—is a true depiction of Filipino from the other perspectives of the world.

Naturally, no Filipino Christmas table is truly complete without a bottle of Coca-Cola. For decades, Coke has been making every Filipino much more special as it announces the bells of our Christmas feast, adds laughter to the conversations, and ably lends a helping hand to catch up with each other. And make Christmas even more exciting for every family starting October 21, Coca-Cola will be re-emerging, through its Coca-Cola Pasko sa Pasko theme, those moments when Coca-Cola truly part of their lives.

Consumers can now buy Coca-Cola and look under the cap to see if it's one of the winning Pasko Caps. They have to present ONE (1) Winning Pasko Cap plus FOUR (4) Real Little Caps. To redeem their special Pasko Dinner and Fun collection at participating eat-in stores and public restaurants nationwide.

With sets of Pasko Spoons and Forks, Coca-Cola and all your special Christmas meals, you're sure to have a splendid dining table that sings and dances in a melody of tastes, smiles and love!

Have your top everything off with the love and laughter. But comes from your family and the thought that Coke will be bringing you even more happiness this season and what you'll have interest in the warm Christmas celebration in the whole world.
